EVIDENCE IN NEW YORK MAYORALTY CON-TEST TO BE PRESENTED APRIL 18.

Unable to meet even the looking for a job by or requesting reinstatement and the office, Mayor Hildard has decided to have a special committee of five men to be known as the Bureau of Labor and Unemployment, composed of Mayor Hildard, for a job, or for reinstatement, will, in the event of a request, look into the matter. A request, look into with the chief of the Bureau of Labor and Unemployment, on the third floor of the Court House.

The bureau is also designed to be a place where the unemployed can get information regarding streets, street lights, sewers, and the furnishing of information on desired.

Rev. John M. Colgan, professor of philosophy at Boston College, is dangerously ill as the result of a stroke of paralysis last evening at Graylock Hotel in the Berkshire, where he was ordered recently by his physician. Fr. Colgan is a director of the Young Men's Sodality of the Church of the Immaculate Conception.

Dr. J. H. Gleason, president of Boston College, is at the side of the stricken priest.

ner Magrath said to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter: "It is a plain case of suicide. It was caused by insomnia and extreme nervousness. He lost his pen for about a year. Business difficulties could have caused it. I should say that he must have killed himself about 9 o'clock."

Dr. Hall had treated Mr. Windram for about a year. The patient had been in an extremely depressed state for the last PEKING, March 14.—A view of Japan's warlike preparations it is rumored that the Chinese Government is ready to approve the draft of a document according to the terms of which China will pay Japan $1,000,000 (about $10,000,000) and retain the arms which came from the cargo of the Tatsu Maru. She will also pay about 10,000 tons demurrage on the steamship, and agree to release the Tatsu Maru on Monday.

Japan, it is declared, agrees to adopt and enforce strict regulations to prevent foreign traffic in arms and ammunition from Japan into China, but will not include the territory of Macao in this limitation.

Our claims was the formation of the "Shanghai Special Zone" and the payment of a full indemnity. Action was demanded within a "reasonable time," in case of default or postponement, Japan, according to the terms of her ultimatum, declared she would "take immediate action."

Japan Refused Overtures.

Japan refused to tolerate China's offer to investigate the case, and insisted upon
